

JUNIOR LIBRARY COUNCIL

This year, because of half-session, a Junior Library Council was formed to serve the students of the Junior High School.

Much of their time this year has been spent in orientation to the various phases of library work; how to check books in or out, the process of doing reading records, or where to find information for some harassed History student.

The meetings of the council are held twice a month in the library. Here the students discuss their work and make plans for their activities and projects.
