Scotch Plains' gridiron Raiders fought an uphill battle hampered by injuries throughout the season. Calling the plays was quarterback Bill Austin who also threw the passes which landed in the capable hands of ends Jay Revett and Joe Davis more than 50% of the time. Scotch Plains rounded out the forward wall with one of the heaviest lines in its history including co-captains Pete Terry and Eric Braun with the assistance of Doug Closserman, Bill Lersch, John Argenziano, and Ronnie Boyd. Carrying the ball for lots of yardage were Doug Nettingham, Lou Stranich, and Bernie Johnson with Ken Rogers supplying the kicking. Coach Callaghan will have a lot of replacing for next years squad.
