

RHEA MAE KIRCHER

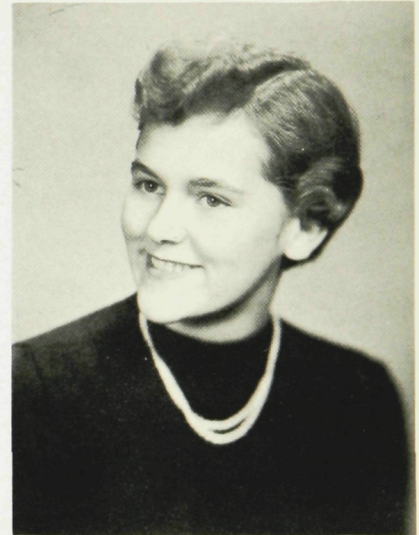

The strains of popular semi-classical and classical music come floating across the room. "That's my song," a voice is heard saying. Who else could that be but our Rhea? With her liking for music, we know her life will be a pleasant one. Her future plans include secretarial school and court stenography.

SYLVIA ROSEMARY KLEPPER

Fanscotian; Culmen; Art Club; G. A. A.; Junior Play; Library Council; Senior Chorus; Las Cantadoras.

"Syl" is going up into "them thar hills" to attend West Virginia Wesleyan. She also plans marriage in the near future if she has her way. "Syl" is always ready with all the news of what's going on in Westfield High. She spends about half her time there; she's our own Sergeant Friday.

"That's cool!"

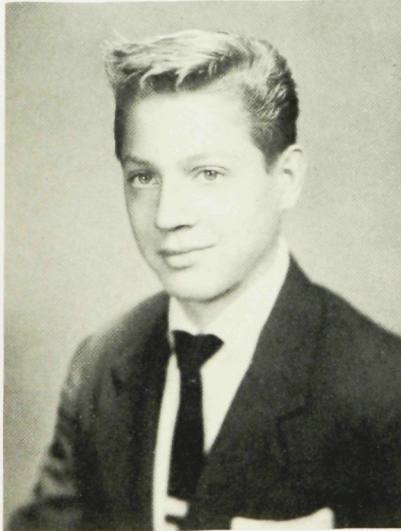

THEODORE PAUL KUBISTA

Basketball; Varsity Club; Band; Orchestra; Moonglowers; Student Council; Art Club.

Tee, Tea Kettle, or D. A., whichever you prefer, is another one of our "court boys." This boy is "cool," "real gone" we mean. No one but no one and we mean no one plays the saxophone like Ted. He walks like he plays, "with a beat," man. We're sure that he'll be a swingin' chemist after graduation.

"She-ba-daba-daba-oop-poop!"

ROSEMARY ANN LANE

Cheerleader; G. A. A.; Secretary, Sophomore Class; Junior Play; Culmen.

Even when "Ro" is out on the field giving out with the cheers she looks like she's up to something. You can blame that on that Devil's gleam in "Ro's" blue-blue eyes. A "game" audience for any comedian—"Ro's" the gal. If we know her, that college better be prepared for anything.
