

FOREWORD

This Culmen is, in a sense, a mirror. It contains a brief description of the Class of '56 and the experiences that we have enjoyed most while in Scotch Plains High School. We don't know what the future holds for us, but we are ready to face it with what we have learned here. "Forward ever be our watchword"