

HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization whose members must, in the opinion of the faculty, exhibit qualities of leadership, scholarship, service, and character. The group under the leadership of Miss Roberts, faculty advisor, holds monthly meetings. This year the induction assembly had for its program topic the new high school. Fifteen per cent of a graduating class may be elected to membership.

OFFICERS

President RAY WEIGLE
 Vice-President JENNY MAYER
 Secretary-Treasurer BARBARA LINDSAY

First row: Virginia Broch, Anne Kimberley, Virginia Gross, Judy Sand, Jenny Mayer, Anne Purvis. Second row: Barbara Lindsay, Jean Iaione, Carole Hartlaub, Frances Powers. Third row: John Mayer, Raymond Weigle, Miss Dorothy Roberts, Nancy Taber, John Roglieri, Art Cockburn.

