

JACK L. GANZ, JR.

"With spark and drive"

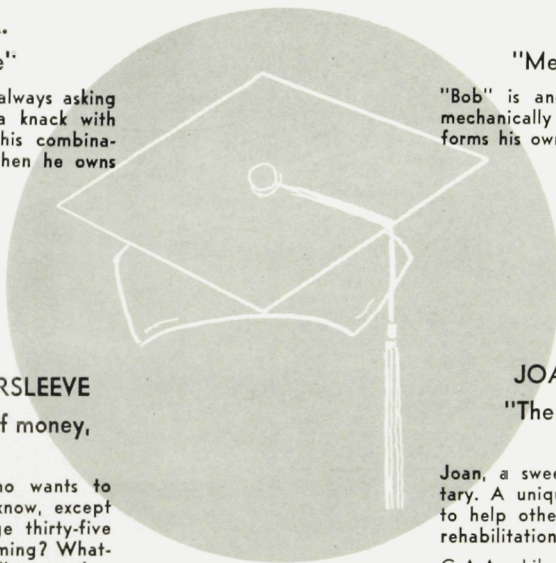

Jack has an inquiring mind for he's always asking questions. He also seems to have a knack with his hands, especially around cars. This combination will stand Jack in good stead when he owns his own auto parts store.

ROBERT GARON

"Mechanics hold fascination"

"Bob" is another of our fun-loving seniors. His mechanically gifted fingers will aid him when he forms his own electrical business.

GEORGE MADISON GILDERSLEEVE

"If you would know the value of money, try to borrow some"

George is one of those fellows who wants to get rich quick. At what he doesn't know, except that he'd like his first million by age thirty-five and retirement at forty. Are you dreaming? Whatever the goal, we sincerely hope you'll succeed.

JOAN VIRGINIA GIMSKIE

"The only way to have a friend is to be one"

Joan, a sweet, shy girl, is going to be a secretary. A unique twist to this aim is that she likes to help others and her spare hours may go into rehabilitation work.

G.A.A.; Library Council.

