

PHYLLIS JEAN HAHM

"She doeth little kindnesses"

"Phyl" has been a valuable asset to our class in many ways. She is kind, considerate, dependable, and efficient. Although she's a good musician, "Phyl" would like to find a career in writing.

Culmen Associate Editor; Senior Chorus; Las Cantadores; Student Council; Orchestra; Service Club; Junior and Senior National Honor Societies; Junior Play; Junior Prom Committee; Library Council President and Treasurer.

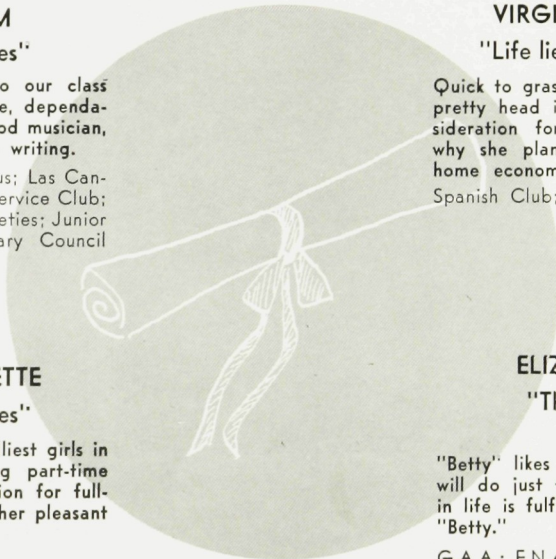

VIRGINIA DOROTHY HAINE

"Life lies not in living but in liking"

Quick to grasp all kinds of information, "Ginni's" pretty head is a wealth of knowledge. Her consideration for everyone makes it easy to see why she plans to attend college and major in home economics.

Spanish Club; G.A.A.; Junior Play; Fanscotian.

LOIS JEANETTE HAMLETTE

"A smile from friendly eyes"

Lois is one of the sweetest and friendliest girls in our class. At present she is working part-time as a telephone operator in preparation for full-time work. She will get much use for her pleasant manner in this occupation.

G.A.A.

ELIZABETH ANN HARRIS

"The highest distinction—service to others"

"Betty" likes very much to help people and she will do just this in a nursing career, if her aim in life is fulfilled. We wish you the best of luck, "Betty."

G.A.A.; F.N.A.

