

For many years a keen observer could not have failed to notice the attendance of an alert, white-haired man at almost every athletic contest held here at Scotch Plains. If the observer had looked more closely, he would have realized that this man was a motivating force behind the Raiders. His vociferous cheering and rooting would bring instant response from hard-pressed teams. Who is this never-failing booster? Why he's none other than Mr. Bryant Johnston. Because Mr. Johnston has been such a loyal supporter of S.P.H.S. activities, we, the class of 1957, dedicate the sports section of the CULMEN to him.
