

Bob Scott is somewhat overshadowed by his sombrero in Spanish III.

The study hall is "quiet" and everyone is "working"

The band rehearsal will be late starting again, for the musicians are having another "jazz session."

The crimes of Bob Yeakle and Judy Colin have caught up with them again as they vainly explain away their blue slips to Mr. Callaghan.

Everybody's ready, let the assembly begin.

The day the cafeteria began operating was a happy one.

The girls are hard at work on the exercises, trying to slim their figures.

