

"Let such teach others"

MRS. PHYLLIS A. HUTTON
Douglass College, B.S.
Family Living, Homemaking
Foods I and II, Hostess
Hostess Club

Gives "shopping" assignments . . .
 seamstress in her spare hours
 "Oh, really?" . . . conducts an orderly class . . . a record collection representing the best in music.

MISS JOANNE JACOBSON
Augustana College, B.A.
English III
F.T.A.

Bright smile and blue eyes . . .
 bubbling over . . . well liked . . .
 sweet disposition . . . mind of her own . . . roomful of potted geraniums.

MR. HERBERT C. JENSEN
Rutgers, M.A., Sixth Year Level
World History and U.S. History I Coordinator of School Activities

"There are some clowns in this class" . . . officiates baseball and basketball . . . sports are tops friendly yet strict . . . sense of humor.

MRS. FAITH E. LIMPERT
Rutgers University, B.A.
Montclair State College, M.A.
English II and III
Dramatics Club

"Okay, kiddies" . . . appreciates people . . . forever plugging, directing, or prompting a play . . .
 drama plays an important role . . .
 "That's one more for you!" . . .
 skillfully patient.

MR. FRANCIS MALESKY
Montclair State College, B.A.
University of Columbia, M.A.
General Math
Projection Squad, Radio Club
Photography Club

Quickly, quickly—everything done quickly . . . always taking Mrs.
 Hutton's blackboard . . . handyman around the house . . . projection squad and Mr. Malesky go together.

MR. JOHN H. MCCOOK
Western Michigan University
Columbia University
U.S. History I
Student Council
Teens for Safe Driving

Enjoys athletics and outdoor living
 . . . played football, basketball, and baseball in college . . . likes politics . . . "The other side of freedom is duty."

MR. NEAL J. MCHUGH
Wilkes College, B.S.
Temple University
Plane Geometry
Advanced General Math

"All right, quiet down!" . . . easy to get along with . . . listening to classical music takes up good deal of his time . . . always busy
 . . . star bowler . . . considerate.

MR. RAYMOND L. MOORE
Newark State College
Rutgers
General Shop I and II

Known for his handwork . . . likes good food and, naturally, dislikes bad food . . . enjoys working on construction problems . . . "My,
 oh my!"