The main purpose of the Latin Club is to give Latin students a more rounded picture of the ancient Roman civilization and to stimulate an interest in the classics. A big event on the club's agenda, along with a trip to Rutgers for the Junior Classical League Convention, was their banquet held in the ancient Roman manner. The guests reclined on mats on the floor and ate Roman style food. They also had an invocation to the Penates, or household gods, and after the meal had entertainment in the ancient style.
