

ROBERT CALDWELL BELLAS, JR.

National Honor Society; Student Council; CULMEN; Junior Class Vice-President; Fancotian, Editor-in-Chief; Service Club; Boys' State; Key Club; Men's Chorus; Football; Chemistry Club; Fire Warden; Latin Club; Senior Chorus, President.

Tall and good looking . . . interests are many and varied . . . swimming and tennis . . . avid chemist . . . making new friends . . . hi-fi and progressive jazz . . . sings in the shower . . . a future Admiral in the U.S. Navy . . . "Robin."

MARY JOAN BARDOLF

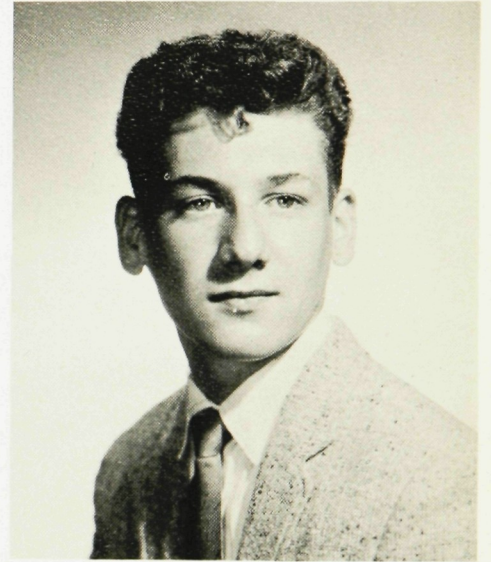

CULMEN; Publicity; F.T.A.; Teens for Safe Driving; Junior Red Cross; Latin Club; Debate Club.

"Yakety-yak" . . . always a peppy smile and greeting . . . a touch of humor . . . ice skating and swimming . . . willingness to help others . . . another class youngster . . . friends by the hundreds . . . chosen field of medicine.

JOHN R. BARICH

Track.

"Hey, fella" . . . swimming . . . main interest is getting out of school . . . auto shop and gym . . . strong dislike for any kind of work . . . pizza lover . . . had his eye on the Marines . . . "Johnny."

more noble and to realize his own true worth."

—Albert Schweitzer

GEORGE ALBERT BARBIER, JR.

Key Club; Band; Orchestra; Intramurals; French Club, Treasurer.

Red hair, freckles, and a quick wit . . . dependable and sincere . . . "How's it going?" . . . a smile that never comes off . . . always on the go . . . never at a loss for words . . . chemical engineer . . . bright red bermudas.

ROBERT BELLAMENTE

A new face in our midst . . . "Ya wanna meet me outside?" . . . mad about molecules . . . aggressive—sportsman . . . a way with the women . . . likes cars . . . weasels in and out of assignments . . . oh, those sweaters! . . . the business world . . . "Bob."

GERARDINA BAVOSA

National Honor Society; CULMEN; Service Club; Leaders' Club; Business Education Club. Enchanting accent . . . "That is nice" . . . loves skiing and dancing . . . sincerity is virtue . . . pretty, intelligent, dependable, hard worker . . . liked by her classmates . . . genuine love for people . . . hopes to become a secretary . . . "Gerry."

