

CHARLES DUTCHER

Key Club; Teens for Safe Driving; Biology Club
I; Dramatic Club.

Tall, blond, and good-looking . . . hunting and fishing fanatic . . . always ready for fun . . . "What's homework?" . . . that black Olds . . . bats about boats . . . all the world loves a clown . . . "Who needs a haircut?" . . . college bound . . . "Dutch."

JOHN J. DUBNOWSKI, JR.

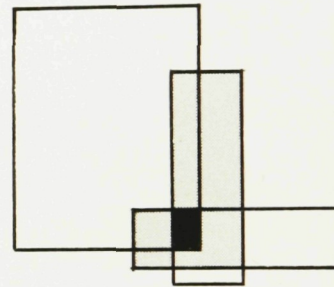

Orchestra; Teens for Safe Driving; Football; Basketball.

Touchdowns on the field and Beethoven on the violin . . . skin diving, archery . . . hard-working . . . "How ya doin'?" . . . "A world without girls wouldn't be a world" . . . easy going but devilish . . . technical college, probably . . . "Dub."

DIANE LOUISE DRIES

Student Council; CULMEN; F.T.A.; Teens for Safe Driving; Leaders' Club; G.A.C., Secretary; Senior Chorus; Las Con; National Honor Society.

Appealing dimples enhance her sparkling smile . . . casual, composed and cooperative . . . "Tis not true all blondes are dumb" . . . is friendly to all she meets . . . basketball whiz . . . well-dressed . . . enthusiasm for helping others . . . future social worker . . . "Di."

DONALD EHRMAN

Tall, dark, and handsome . . . ardent photographer—darkroom of his own . . . honest and sincere . . . "dumb schunгле" . . . great big smile . . . appreciates humor . . . interested in opposite sex . . . easy to get along with . . . portrait photographer . . . "Don."

ILENE DONNA EHRENKRANTZ

F.T.A.; Teens for Safe Driving; Leaders' Club.

Oh, that giggle . . . an understanding, sincere friend . . . the latest fashions are hers . . . just plain enjoys life . . . swimming and horseback riding . . . enlightening and encouraging others is her specialty . . . quick to blush . . . college . . . "I."

IRENE EGGEN

Service Club; Hostess Club.

Noted for her interesting eyebrows . . . pretty dark hair . . . neatness counts . . . ambitious . . . looks innocent, but— . . . has a fancy for black cars and pizza . . . annoyed by nosey people . . . favors figure-skating and dancing . . . fashion model . . . "Rene."

