

"Down another letter grade."

Now is the time for all. . . .

BUSINESS EDUCATION

HARRY ADKINS

A diversified course of study preparing students for careers in the business world is provided by our Business Education Department. The skills and experience learned prove helpful to those planning to go on to college or preparatory schools.

For those students planning to go on to secretarial school or into the actual field of business, basic training is begun in typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand. The department provides a good background in all business subjects.

FIRST ROW, left to right: Joan Byorek, Harry Adkins. SECOND ROW: Charles Dettmar, Stephen Stuart, Paul Beckman, George Esposito.

"The other name for labor is. . ."

