

We would like to thank

Mr. Armerding, Mr. Herrick, and Mr. Ratner, our advisors. Mr. Armerding especially for taking so many pictures that otherwise would have been very difficult to get and for the use of his car, Mr. Herrick for his advice on finances, and Mr. Ratner for his help in proofreading.

Mr. Adams for his interest in our many problems.

Mr. Volpe for his toleration of our absences from class.

The Rae Publishing Company and especially Mr. Everett for his many trips to help us.

The office staff for helping us with announcements, phone calls, and dittoing our schedules.

Mr. Prignoli ("... I'll punch ya' in the mouth so it'll bleed for about an hour and a half."), Mr. Oller ("I think I've walked about ten miles today, and this camera is very heavy."), and Mr. Weber ("Are we going outside? It's freezing!!!) of Lorstan Studios for taking most of our pictures.

The custodians for setting up the stage for our pictures.

Mr. Esposito and the typing teachers for the use of their machines.

Mr. Malesky for developing our last-minute pictures.

Miss Ayers for many helpful suggestions.

The Stage Crew for the music on picture-taking days.

Everyone who contributed props for special pictures.

Our teachers for understanding and letting us out of classes.
