

We Would Like To Thank

Mr. Armerding, Mr. Evans, Mr. Ratner, and Mrs. Bihler, our advisors. A special thanks to Mr. Armerding for those "last-minute" pictures, to Mr. Evans for his financial advice, and to Mr. Ratner and Mrs. Bihler for all their proofreading.

Mr. Adams for his support and interest in our yearbook.

Mr. Volpe for his patience and toleration with our absences from class.

The Rae Publishing Company and, over all, Mr. Everett for all his help, understanding, and clarification on difficult matters.

The Office Staff for their help with announcements and phone calls.

Lorstan Studios and their photographers, without which there would have been no CULMEN.

The stage crew for their help with the risers and the music from the P.A. system.

The English and Business departments for the use of their ditto machines.

Mr. Malesky for those "last-minute" developments.

Everyone who contributed props for our special pictures.

Anyone who helped us in any way that we forgot to mention.
