

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special Thanks Go To . . .

Mr. Armerding, Mr. Evans, Mr. Ratner, and Mrs. Bihler, our advisors. It has been their patient guidance which has kept us steadily plodding ahead when problems and indecision might have prevented us from doing so.

Mr. Adams, our principal, for his support and interest in The Culmen '64.

Mr. Volpe, for his understanding tolerance of our many class absences when "deadline time" rolled around.

Mr. Everett and the Rae Publishing Company, for boundless extra considerations, and much needed help. It is only through their special guidance that this book is brought to you.

Lorstan Studios, for much valuable photographic time, and the fast developing that they had to do so many times.

The office staff for their help with announcements and telephone calls.

The history and business departments for the use of their reproducing equipment, and especially Mr. Esposito for the use of his room those many afternoons.

Bill Stamm and Tim O'Laughlin for being available for last-minute picture-taking.

The various teachers who have understandingly ignored the loud noises and late hours in S-12.

Anyone else who has helped us in so many ways; it took the efforts of many people to produce our yearbook.

Above all, many thanks go to you, the students of S.P.-F.H.S. who have, literally, made the Culmen '64 possible by your support. We do hope that your backing and our effort have produced a worthy memorial to this year.
