

Victory over Westfield

Mr. Dettmar

The 1964-1965 basketball team came through, as expected, with a fine season—finishing with an 11-3 Conference record, second only to Cranford. The team, led by captain Rick Felmeister, consisted largely of seniors, most of whom were back from last year's varsity.

Arch rival Westfield was beaten twice during the course of the season. The first game was a 58-57 affair, which proved to be the highlight of the year. The Raiders finally won in triple overtime on center Dave Shunk's free throw. Key baskets by Felmeister and John Kocher kept the Raiders in the game when things looked bleak. Felmeister's shot was a desperation attempt from half-court with two seconds left and Scotch Plains trailing by two points.

Ed Kolakoski, Arnie Reich, and Bob Burness also helped greatly in contributing to the success of the team. Reich, up from last year's junior varsity, surprised almost everyone by landing a starting spot. Back next year for Coach Dettmar are Chuck Lott and Tom Jackson, the only juniors to make this year's squad.
