

Capacity crowds were not unusual at Saturday afternoon football games.

Action on the field was announced from the press box donated by the Booster Club. The vantage point it provided greatly aided the coaches in evaluating the Raiders' opponents as well as their own weaknesses. Films taken from atop the press box were reviewed by the coaches and team.