

The language lab enables students to develop fluency in foreign language.

Mrs. Larson poses a familiar question in French, "Où allez-vous au college?" Students are required to answer in French.

Creating Christmas cards gives French students a chance to express themselves more completely in that language.