

The echoing halls will remain empty this summer, as we set our sights toward the sun and surf. But it is not without some feeling of nostalgia that we leave Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School. Some of us will leave just for the summer, but others, the Seniors, will never return. This is the history of your year. Read it now, remember it later, and be proud always. The people, the activities, and the ideals shown here will be a part of you forever.
