

Spring is the time of year when winter lifts its snowy veil and life comes again to the halls of S.P.F.H.S. While many seniors are still waiting impatiently to hear from their chosen colleges, summer employment and other plans for the future are important thoughts in the minds of everyone. After many weeks of preparation, the highlight of the season comes with the exciting proms. Enthusiasm spreads as students look anxiously to the sunny days at the shore and the increased freedom that the warm weather brings.

Spring fever runs rampant through S.P.F.H.S.

The long lost senior door!

Geoff Young picks salad greens for cafeteria lunch.