Endless ditch digging has made S.P.F.H.S. the Venice of New Jersey.

Notice the complete absence of Seniors at Student Council canteens.

As the autumn season returned to Scotch Plains, students quickly adjusted to a fall existence. Friday night pep rallies paved the way for Saturday afternoon games and the newly organized Homecoming was deemed a success. There were assemblies featuring long-hair music, Princeton's Sophomore Class President, and "Lumps in the Gravy." New movies, new fads, new songs, and new fashions took precedence over the old—a new school year had begun.
