

Charlie Borbely fights to regain the ball.

Dennis Visconti, in a world of his own.

SOCCER TEAM BEST IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Bill Nowak, right wing, centers the ball.

The finest soccer team ever to originate at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, recorded a brilliant record of outstanding victories and ties and was beaten only three times in seventeen outings. Led by one of the best defensive backfields in the area and an exceptionally quick line, this team registered ten victories against scheduled opposition and was unlucky in tying three times. Memorable wins included a 4-1 romp over a strong Linden team and a 3-1 triumph over a homestanding Jefferson squad. Constantly emphasizing the need for wing play, coaches Formichella and Rhine guided the team into a third place berth in the Union County Soccer Tournament, in which the team overpowered a strong Westfield squad to reach the semi-finals. Although beaten by Pingry, the team showed the same skill and desire