to the end that helped them score thirty-five times during the season.

Individually there were many standouts, with captain Bob Holdsworth, a 1st Team All-County Selection, leading the backfield in determination and skill. Co-captain Tom Pasko proved overpowering at both half back and fullback, while Dennis Visconti and Gary Sonderland also excelled defensively. In goals, Chris Adams and Dave Robbins proved immensely effective, registering between them six shut-outs. The line, which throughout the season, was comprised of many different and talented players, was led by high scoring Jeff Frey, a 2nd Team County Selection, with nine goals to his credit. Charlie Borbely also excelled, and scored eight times while Bill Nowak tallied for five goals.
