

Do You Remember . . .

Orientation Day when no one knew the Alma Mater,
Feeling small, searching for a familiar face,
Watching the sun rise first period at 7:30 a.m.
Breaking down the wall between Park and Terrill,
Working together on the Sophomore Hop,
Gladly giving up closed study halls for open lunch, and
Learning and growing together?

Do you remember . . .

Girls wearing pants, boys wearing skirts,
Getting your school ring and class rank,
"Pressing for Victory" at Homecoming '69,
Presenting "Up the Down Staircase,"
Watching our new building slowly evolve,
Creating "Sakura Matsuri" and
Growing older and closer?

Do you remember . . .

Driving instead of walking, going to Tito's,
Getting to know everyone and
Do everything because it's your last chance,
Applying to colleges and searching for jobs,
Anxiously waiting on a threshold, while Wistfully looking to graduation and the close of a segment of your life?

Will you remember . . .

The spirit of '71?
