

to live a life . . . a creative, human and sensitive life" . . .

dedication

. . . devoting himself to the expansion of independent programs . . . devising new opportunities for scholastic endeavors . . . open and aware to all channels of faculty and student communications . . . feeling and appreciating the necessities of s.p.f.h.s. . . . encouraging an open campus . . . imagining the most creative educational experience possible . . . initiating and accomplishing both the construction of the new section and the independent study program . . . promoting extensive use of our facilities . . . developing the intellectual curiosity of each student . . . plans extending into the future . . . a goal to be realized only with complete learning independence . . . a dream each individual will have to meet in his own way. . . .

