

"close beside the watching mountains . . ." fran southard, ruth armerding.

music department

. . . "even the richest child is poor without music" . . .

. . . concert choir, a capella . . . something new, a mixed sophomore chorus . . . "there are never enough boys" . . . las cans evening rehearsals . . . "how can i sing on a full stomach?" . . . barbershop music . . . hard work . . . excitement as the christmas concert approaches . . . band practice eighth period on the field . . . rehearsing for the band festival october 12 . . . hoping to perform for other schools during the year . . . planning for the new rock club . . . studying development of rock music as an art . . . through practicing . . . repetition . . . working together . . . "when the rest of the school is dead, we'll still be jumping up here." . . .