

Mary Hamulak, Vita Kolber.

Home Economics Department

. . . breaking down traditional sex barriers in home economics . . . a new boys' clothing class . . . "Since when are ties six feet long?" . . . foods III . . . a food service program . . . planning an inter-departmental business-home-ec course for vocational preparation . . . not only mastering domestic skills, but also investigating the psychology of the family unit . . . child development . . . studying the mental and physical growth of the pre-school child . . . field trips to nursery schools . . . examining family relationships . . . "variety is the spice of life" . . .

