

Special Education Department

Kristina Klunder

. . . enabling students to reach independence
. . . specialized attention . . . a warm, caring atmosphere . . . students of varying abilities
. . . each student developing his potential . . . learning skills that will enable the student to "be on his own" . . . helping the student find his place in society. . . .