

"Concerning Open Lunch . . ." Ralph Laino.

"The Young Executives" — Cari Wilson, treasurer; Ralph Laino, president; Cindy Reeves, vice president; Elena Delli Santi, secretary.

. . . individuals conveying the views and opinions of the entire student body . . . raising money and supporting the ecology movement by selling recycled stationery . . . coffee and donuts in the morning . . . an exchange program with other schools . . . comparing and gathering new ideas, putting them to work . . . hectic meetings . . . "May we have a vote on the amendment to the amendment of the proposal?" . . . Various committees at work; drawing up a new final exam proposal, taking steps toward open lunch . . . reaching out beyond the doors of the school; sponsoring an Indian child, UNICEF drive . . . encouraging enthusiasm within the school . . . acting on student suggestions as voiced through elected representatives . . . aiming for a better SPFHS. . . .

Representative Council

"This wouldn't be so bad if I wasn't missing a study hall." Suzanne Ososki.