

Liaison

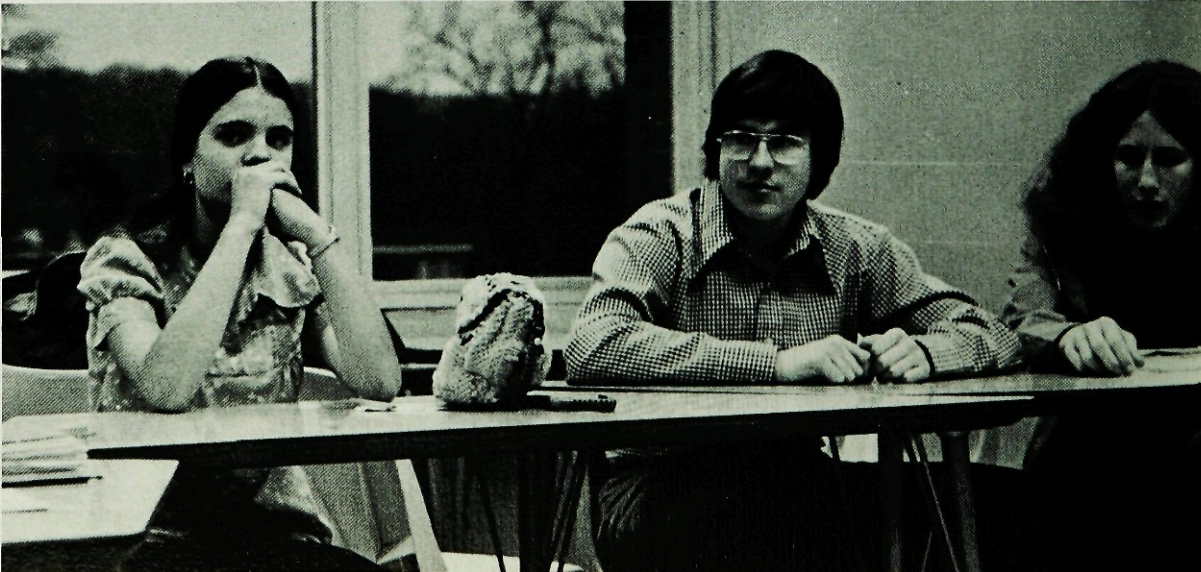

. . . mediators between students and faculty
. . . students and teachers together discussing vital school issues; questioning the advantages and disadvantages of open lunch . . . compromising . . . proposing changes in school policy; debating solutions to problem of student attendance . . . gaining a two-sided approach to all questions . . . searching for ways to make school "better-suited" for everyone. . .

Dr. Riegel voices an opinion.
