

Ten Little Indians.

Twirlers

. . . flapping blue and white flags to the beat of "Kansas City" . . . strutting down the field at halftime . . . building excitement for Homecoming; anticipating the crowning of the new captain and co-captain . . . interscholastic competitions at Berkeley Heights . . . demanding a new style; emphasizing synchronized movements, minimizing twirling . . . on to the Edison parade; captivating the judges and winning first place trophy . . . planning more competitions . . . showing pride in themselves, the school and the band . . . challenging their capabilities; twirling with fire . . . promoting student involvement at SPF. . . .

A happy new captain. Janis Warner.

Carol Johnson gets a hot tip.

The 1972-73 Twirlers — Front Row: Carol Johnson, captain; Ann Chamberlin, co-captain. Second Row: Janis Warner, Diane Walsh,

Mary Ann Smith, Patty Posbergh, Sue Ball, Betty Ann Reilly, Debbie Scannell, Sue Karlson.