

WSPF's one and only Monday morning vitality. John Caputo.

Don "Cosell" Hamer wraps up the morning's sport shorts.

WSPF

. . . it's WSPF . . . a new delight—music in the morning; golden oldies, rock and soul . . . followed by news . . . reporting club events, sports . . . accenting program with poetry readings . . . emphasizing communication; opening channels for student participation . . . a regular staff; disk jockeys, engineers . . . initiating creative experiences; fun and games week with free prizes . . . radiothon; a school service project securing 240 student lounge monitors . . . originality has no barriers . . . "This has been John Cross and John Caputo for W.S.P.F. Will you please rise for the pledge to the flag." . . .

"If I announce this I'll be censored for life." Lisa Knouse.