"Oh I wish I were an Oscar Meyer weiner!" Jean Massa.

Culmen '73

IN THE BEGINNING God created John Patterson. And God said, "Let him be a yearbook advisor.;" and he was. And God saw that the advisor was good. The First Day.

And then God said, "Let there be a '73 yearbook staff.;" and there was. And God saw the editors and staff members, and it was good???. The Second Day.

Then God said, "Let there be a deadline, with work and sweat and popcorn.;" and there was. And God saw that the deadlines were a mess!!! The Third Day.

Then God said, "Let there be Rae Publishing to print this yearbook.;" and there was. And God saw that Rae was good. The Fourth Day.

Then God said, "Let there be insurmountable problems and suffering.;" and there was. And God saw that the problems and suffering were a bummer. The Fifth Day.

Then God said, "Let there be an end to the problems and suffering.;" and there was. And God saw that the yearbook was the best ever and the staff was at peace. The Sixth Day.

Then God said, "Let there be a student body to buy the yearbook.;" and there was. And God saw that the student body bought and loved the yearbook and John Patterson and the editors were filled with pride, and the 1973 CULMEN was immortal. The Seventh Day.

We get by with a little help from our friends.
