

Paivi Lindgren, Finland.

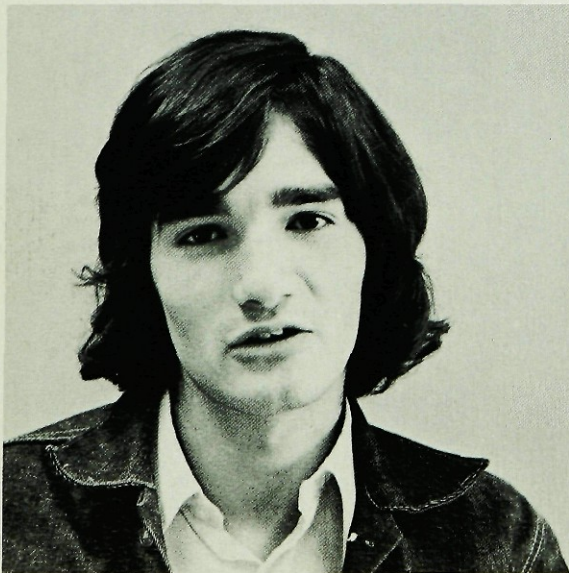

American Field Service

. . . opening our doors to people around the globe
. . . promoting friendship and understanding . . . hosting two foreign students this year; Michel Pallavicini from Corsica and Paivi Lingrin from Finland . . . raising money for the students' school expenses; selling Christmas cards . . . a bond drive . . . bake sales . . . learning about other cultures through field trips; visiting the AFS headquarters in New York . . . sampling foreign cuisine at an international dinner party . . . participating in the AFS weekend in April . . . exchanging ideas . . . building friendships . . . it's a small world after all. . . .

"Remember the password: Americanize!" Lisa Repke, Elaine Stolaroff.

Little do they know that the book is upside down. Michel and Paivi.

222 Michel Pallavicini, Corsica.

