

Ski Club

. . . swoosh, down the slope . . . crisp wind biting at rosy cheeks . . . ski club . . . largest, most active club in the school . . . providing reduced cost for ski trips . . . preseason shape-up at Great Gorge . . . traveling to slopes both near and far; Vernon Valley, Stowe, Vermont . . . the highlight of the season; skiing the Dolomites in Italy during February vacation . . . a disappointing season because of lack of snow . . . fund-raising activities; a candy sale, the ever-successful ski club dance, second annual ski show—a surprise visit by Olympic gold medal winner Suzie Chaffee . . . a new SPF ski team . . . bringing students together through a common interest—the snow. . . .

Jack Spingler ponders the necessity of teachers on ski trips. Mrs. Finelli, Jack Spingler, Miss Connel.

John Cross stands erect. John Cross, Ed Hvidsak.

Barb Bell and Janis Warner tackle the slopes.