

Planning for a Spring field trip to Canada.

Dirty jokes even sound better in French. Nancy Ward.

"If we save our lunch money for four years we'll have enough for a trip to France." Sue Sayer, Randy Taylor.

French National Honor Society

. . . "Bonjour mes amis. Aujourd'hui, nous allons chanter" . . . the beginning of another meeting . . . promoting interest in the French language . . . going beyond the doors of SPF to do so . . . teaching in elementary schools; sparking enthusiasm . . . tutoring in the junior high schools; gaining knowledge by spreading knowledge . . . experiencing a Canadian spring; visiting Quebec in May; a chance to communicate in the language . . . "Hey, they understand me!" . . . sponsoring one of the most successful dances at SPF this year . . . working to raise funds for the Edith L. Pitcher Scholarship . . . guest speakers and AFS students speaking about France . . . enjoying the cultural aspects of the French . . . visiting a new and different world; Le Français. . .

Mademoiselles Gay Augustine, Valerie Lum, Elaine Deutsch.

