

Meditation and soul searching help to bring Bible Club members closer to God.

As Harriet Whitlock turns the other cheek, Fran Southard and Becky Hildick stash the loot.

Bible Club

. . . 7:55 a.m. . . . Bible Club meetings . . . ten minutes of daily prayer before school begins . . . a nonsectarian club . . . encouraging Bible reading and theological discussion . . . special meetings after school; showing films that illustrate Bible teachings; discussions; guest speakers . . . helping to fulfill a spiritual need . . . "encouraging students to put teachings of the Bible into daily life and practice" . . . Bible Club . . . a means of guidance and encouragement. . . .

E.A.G. members recycle their homework. Anna Vargas, Peggy Schott, Paul Hausheer, Gary Gulka.

Environmental Action Group

. . . concerned students working to clean up our environment . . . monthly can and bottle drives . . . recycling used paper in the school . . . promoting interest in ecology through film presentations . . . "If we don't act now—it'll be gone."