

Photography Club

... lights, camera, action! ... the photography club ... viewing the world with two eyes plus the eye of the camera ... seizing movement and beauty in nature ... capturing human emotion; surprise, despair ... inviting guest speakers to demonstrate their special techniques ... taking field trips to the shore; catching the morning light sparkling on the waves ... working in the darkroom; developing, experimenting with light ... enlarging prints ... mounting finished photos ... letting others see your discovery of a small part of life. ...

"Stop Bugging Me." Photographed by Paul Medenbach.

Photographed by Pete Ricker.

"This is KL57, do you read me Mars?" John Fields.

Radio Club

... K157 to W38 do you read me? Over." ... promoting amateur radio operation ... affiliated with the nationwide A.R.R.L., American Radio Relay League ... members participating in D-X contest ... a field day in June ... competing to pick up the most foreign stations ...

transmitter hunts ... finding the hidden car through transmitted signals ... training in the use of emergency equipment ... offering to share their knowledge and equipment with fellow students ... and exciting hobby. ...