

to fernand laberge
six years as superintendent of schools a dedicated administrator working to better the schools concerned about the students' well-being initiating change in a rapidly transforming world allowing students a voice in school affairs striving to prepare students for future life to you, we dedicate this book.