

"Boy, am I glad it's Friday." Charles Dettmar.

"I still get to correct this many more papers!" Frances DeSalvo.

*Jean Poquette concentrates on
the business
at hand.*

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Providing the student with a practical and useful knowledge of skills, the Business Department continues to be a major link between S.P.F.H.S. and the business world. The curriculum of the Business Department offers interested students the opportunity to earn money and experience some type of employment while completing their academic requirements for graduation. Through the DECA and FBLA clubs, students are able to grasp the skills of salesmanship, bookkeeping, and merchandising. This year, the department organized a program which allowed students to view the daily tasks and routines of a person with a business career. Through a wealth of meaningful and practical courses the Business Department strives to prepare students for future entry into the business world.

*"You shouldn't do that dear, it cuts off the circulation!"
Susan Anderson, Joan Byerek.*