

Derek DeVito, an individual admired, loved and respected by all who knew him. Friendly, compassionate, and happy are just words and cannot completely describe our image of him. His death, though tragic, will never erase his impact upon all our lives. In appreciation for what he was, and will always be in our hearts we dedicate the 1976 Culmen to him.