

ADMINISTRATION

The SPFHS administration was determined to provide students with a "thorough and efficient education" despite the limited budget for the 1975-1976 school year. A shifting of responsibilities within the administration was necessary to cover the additional workload, caused by the elimination of the position of vice principal in charge of instruction. Because of this change administrators assumed expanded supervisory duties, broadening their already extensive workload.

RAYMOND L. SCHNITZER — Assistant Principal