

"Ah come on, I bet you say that to all your teachers." John Feldman.

"I think I just found the missing mouse." Tanya Barna.

Because of rapidly changing technology, the Science Department expanded its curriculum by adding a semester-long astronomy course dealing with a basic descriptive introduction to astronomy and cosmology. For its annual project, the Student Curriculum Committee conducted a student/staff evaluation of the Science Department. The results of this evaluation will be useful to the Science faculty in planning for next year's classes.
