"There is nothing wrong with the Younger Generation that the Older Generation didn't outgrow.

Compliments of
MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM DUNLAP

*We have reached an end.
We are no longer the children of the present,
We are the leaders of tomorrow.
We are a new generation,
Neither blinded by patriotism,
Nor immobilized by cynicism.
We have enough disdain for authority to speak out,
But enough respect so as to be respected in return.*

Special thanks to Florence, Mrs. Edler, Mrs. King, Mrs. Turteltaub, and Mrs. Phillips
A reminder to the Culmen Literary Staff: Mich, your idea was great!
Everyone, I think it was worth the effort.
There wasn't a pothead in the whole joint.
Bill, thanks for the ride home.

*Our only duty is to ourselves.
We deserve better than the world we inherit
from our fathers,
And must change it on our own.
We betray our brothers only if we allow ourselves to be swept into the silent majority.
We honor our brothers by establishing ourselves as individuals in the boisterous minority.*
