

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

... the Monroe Doctrine ... Franklin D. Roosevelt ... Manifest Destiny ... Vietnam War ... focusing on actual current problems of our nation and the world ... every course emphasizing the development of skills in gathering, organizing, interpreting and using data effectively ... students fulfilling the two years of United States History requirement of the New Jersey State law by studying contemporary issues and forces as well as their historical roots ... Sophomores beginning with United States History I ... Juniors having the option of selecting half-year courses consisting of one national and one international course, as well as United States History II ... helping to understand the decisions of the past and their effect upon the problems of today

