

CENTER FOR INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY

... film projectors, tape recorders, video equipment ... performing an essential service to S.P.F.H.S. ... allowing students to explore the field of communication ... proud to be among the few high schools to possess T.V. distribution systems and T.V. studios ... a voluntary staff with enthusiasm and responsibility ... delving into the operation of instruments while in a regular classroom situation ... "Where would we be without C.I.T.? "

DATA PROCESSING CENTER

Right: Hazel Clark
Left: Mildred Pollock

... tabulating daily absences for both the junior high schools and the high school and recording the monthly attendance for the whole system ... diligently producing report cards each marking period ... calculating the class ranks of students after their junior year and maintaining permanent student records ... available for the printing of labels needed by many school activities ... compiling town surveys and the Board of Education information ... serving the community as well as the high school with the computerized processing of information