

All these changes, worldwide and schoolwide, influenced our personal development to a greater or lesser degree. We evolved from sophomores to seniors; we grew in our relationships with others; we learned from our teachers, our texts, and ourselves; we developed physically, mentally, socially, and perhaps, spiritually.

WE CHANGED