

We are individual links; yet all told, links are not meant to exist alone. They are part of a larger unit, a chain. We students are part of a chain connected to our studies, our teachers, and to each other.

As we continue to grow beyond graduation our "links" may be stretched, but we will forever be part of a unique chain, the Class of '81.

